FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ERIE SEAWOLVES RENEW THEIR 6-YEAR PARTNERSHIP WITH TICKETRETURN

The agreement extends the SeaWolves' commitment with the leading supplier of ticketing solutions for Minor League Baseball

TicketReturn announced that it will continue to serve as the primary ticketing provider for the Erie SeaWolves (Erie, Pa.) and support them with industry-leading box office, online and mobile ticketing technologies. The new agreement will extend the successful 6-year partnership between TicketReturn and the SeaWolves.

TicketReturn, a leading provider of box office, online and mobile ticketing services, offers nearly two decades of technology management experience to help clients across the country exceed their goals. The Charlotte, N.C.-based company offers a full suite of ticketing innovations, including event marketing, access control, attendance reporting, accounting and fundraising features for sports and entertainment venues.

TicketReturn will continue to develop industry-leading features and functionality that will allow the SeaWolves to provide a user-friendly ticketing experience. In addition, the SeaWolves have successfully integrated their CRM system into TicketReturn. This has aided their efforts in attracting fans throughout the Erie area.

Team president Greg Coleman said he looked forward to building upon the foundation of a strong TicketReturn partnership.

"The SeaWolves have had a strong partnership with TicketReturn for the past six seasons," Coleman said. "TicketReturn is fan-friendly and just as turnkey for our staff. We really value how the platform integrates with our CRM solution."

"The team cares deeply about their fans, and we want to help grow that relationship for years to come," said Christie Hussey, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at TicketReturn. "We look forward to continuing to provide them with dedicated client support and industry-leading technology that facilitates revenue growth."

The Erie SeaWolves are a Minor League Baseball team that plays in the Eastern League and is the Double-A affiliate of the Detroit Tigers. The SeaWolves play at UPMC Park in Erie, Pa.
