TICKETRETURN, HOUSTON SABERCATS TEAM UP TO TRANSFORM FAN EXPERIENCE

The rugby team signed a 5-year partnership with TicketReturn to help transform the ticket purchase process

TicketReturn is proud to add the Houston SaberCats (Houston, Texas) professional rugby team as a new client. The SaberCats will take advantage of TicketReturn's proven ability to generate incremental revenue by creating and delivering an entire fan experience around the ticket purchase.

TicketReturn, a leading provider of box office, online and mobile ticketing services, offers nearly two decades of technology management experience to help clients across the country exceed their goals. The Charlotte, N.C.-based company offers a full suite of ticketing innovations, including event marketing, access control, attendance reporting, accounting and fundraising features for sports and entertainment venues.

The 5-year partnership will enable the Houston SaberCats to transform the entire ticket purchase process. Through TicketReturn's ability to help its partners generate incremental revenue, the team will be able to provide several additional opportunities for their loyal fans, from food and beverage to experiential opportunities and more.

"The Houston SaberCats are a perfect addition to the TicketReturn family," said Christie Hussey, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at TicketReturn. "We're excited to help the team provide a well-rounded fan experience for their supporters."

The Houston SaberCats, founded in 2017, compete in Major League Rugby, the top-level rugby competition in the United States. The SaberCats expect to play at a new stadium in Houston which will seat more than 3,000 fans. The Aveva Stadium is expected to be completed by January 2019.
