GREENVILLE TRIUMPH SC ENTERS SECOND SEASON WITH TICKETRETURN AS OFFICIAL TICKETING PARTNER

Club leaders with the United Soccer League's Greenville Triumph Soccer Club (Greenville, S.C.) cited accurate reporting tools, experienced client support and easy-to-use software among the top reasons they continue to collaborate with TicketReturn as the club's exclusive ticketing partner. TicketReturn will continue to serve as Greenville Triumph SC's official provider of industry-leading box office, online and mobile technologies for the second season as play begins this year.

TicketReturn offers nearly two decades of technology management experience to help clients across the country exceed their goals. The Charlotte, N.C.-based company offers a full suite of ticketing innovations, including event marketing, access control, attendance reporting, accounting and fundraising features for sports and entertainment venues.

Leaders with the Greenville Triumph said they were pleased with TicketReturn's accurate reporting tools, which gather, collate, and compile ticketing data into easy-to-read reports. They also cited how TicketReturn's proprietary Safe Fan Seating algorithm played an integral role in allowing the Triumph to safely social distance fans in the Fall of 2020.

"We are thrilled to enter year two of our partnership with TicketReturn. When we looked at streamlining the ticket purchase experience for Greenville Triumph fans, we felt TicketReturn provided the best solution," said Chris Baretta, the team's Chief Revenue Officer. "We want the process of obtaining match tickets to be hassle-free for our fans and TicketReturn's staff, technology, partners, and commitment enable us to deliver that kind of service."

A full menu of products including full season ticket plans, all-inclusive premium tickets, partial-season tickets, flex plans and group tickets will be available to Greenville Triumph fans and supporters through the TicketReturn platform. Triumph fans will be able to purchase tickets at the team's box office, online or using a mobile device.

TicketReturn's flexible platform will allow the Triumph to offer non-ticketed inventory such as food and beverage combos, parking discounts or 'apparel and ticket' packages to help the club grow incremental revenue.

"We're looking forward to continuing to assist the Greenville Triumph's box office operations," said Christie Hussey, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for TicketReturn. "Our partnership with the Greenville Triumph is yet another opportunity in which we at TicketReturn can show how our superior service and support set us apart from the competition."

This partnership furthers TicketReturn's commitment to provide ticketing solutions and services to professional sports teams, cultural facilities, colleges and universities throughout the country.
